

We Must Pray

Family prayer is important for building strength and unity within a family. There are practical tips for praying together as a family, such as establishing a consistent time and place for prayer. Parents can involve their children in prayer by encouraging them to share their own prayers or leading simple prayers together.

Philippians 4:6

Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God.

Joshua 24:15

But if serving the Lord seems undesirable to you, then choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your ancestors served beyond the Euphrates, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you are living. But as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord.

The Power and Joy of Being in the Family of God

John 1:12-13

Yet to all who did receive him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God—

children born not of natural descent, nor of human decision or a husband's will, but born of God.

Importance of god to your children God is important to a child for several reasons

Unconditional love: God is always there and loves them unconditionally.

Creator and provider: Teach them that God created everything and takes care of them.

Spiritual growth: Being a child of God provides forgiveness, access to God's power, and guidance.

God Loves You

John 3:16

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

Opening Reception: 6:00 PM – 10:00 PM

Jesus will Carry your burdens

DO YOU HAVE ANXIETY? The key is to learn to give your worries to God, and trust your life and your future into His hands. If God didn't love us or care what happens to us, we'd have reason to worry and be anxious about the future. But He does love us, and He does care what happens to us! The Bible says, "Cast your cares on the Lord and he will sustain you; he will never let the righteous be shaken." (Psalm 55:22).

Begin by turning to Christ and asking Him to come into your life. Then when worries threaten to overwhelm you, bring them to God in prayer—and leave them there. The Bible says,

Matthew 11:28-30

"Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light."

Jesus is your protector!

Psalms 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

The Kingdom Of Christ

Psalms 145:13

Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
and your dominion endures through all generations.

The Lord is trustworthy in all he promises and faithful in all he does. •

Proof God Loves You

Romans 5:8

But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

1 John 4:9

This is how God showed his love among us: He sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him.
